The Senior Class of Wattsburg Area High Presents...

FOREWORD

We, the staff of the Grail of 1960, in editing this edition, have endeavored to present the highlights of our last years on our road to graduation. We have attempted to create a permanent record which will recall to memory the many pleasures we have enjoyed in these fleeting years of fellowship. If this book is referred to and enjoyed in the years to come, we feel that our efforts will have been truly worthwhile.

In a greater sense we hope that future classes shall be able to refer to this book as a record of one of their pleasant years in school.

DEDICATION

We the Senior Class of 1960 gratefully dedicate our Grail to Mr. Saunders, who has patiently served many years with our high school as adviser of the Grail. In his years at our high school Mr. Saunders, with patience, interest and understanding, has won the respect of the students. For this guidance and advice we would like to say, "Thank you."

Administration

Dear Seniors,

Generally speaking, there are two kinds of individuals who achieve some degree of success in life. One is that rare person whose genius permits him to create what no one else has the mental faculties to conceive. Far more common, however, is that average man who is possessed of the more ordinary qualities developed to an extraordinary degree through sincere effort. Be assured that diligence and dedicated application to the task at hand are never denied the rewards of satisfaction and success.

Sincerely,

R. E. Turley

BOARD OF EDUCATION

We sometimes fail to give the credit that is rightly deserved by our school board. Without them our school would have little chance for existence. These are the chosen men who handle all the problems concerning the well being of our school.

Asked how he rose to great heights, the great J. B. Priestly said, "As for anyone else, I can't say, I only know I cared like blazes."

Each of you can be successful, if you care enough to make good use of your time and to pursue your calling with ever-increasing energy.

GUIDANCE

Choosing a vocation is one of the most important decisions a person has to make. This is one of the many problems brought before Mr. Brannon by the students. He helps them plan their courses in accordance with their future plans, and at time offers personal advice. Seniors, especially, realize how much they need his help.

Mr. Brannon, school counselor, gives advice to seniors.

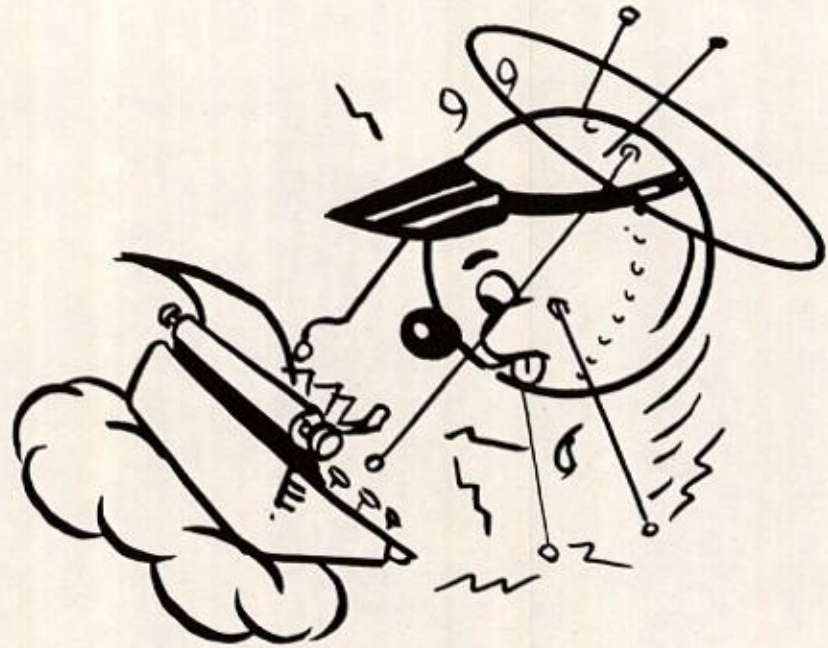

Departments

Advisor for typing and shorthand II is:
Miss Ferritto

COMMERCIAL

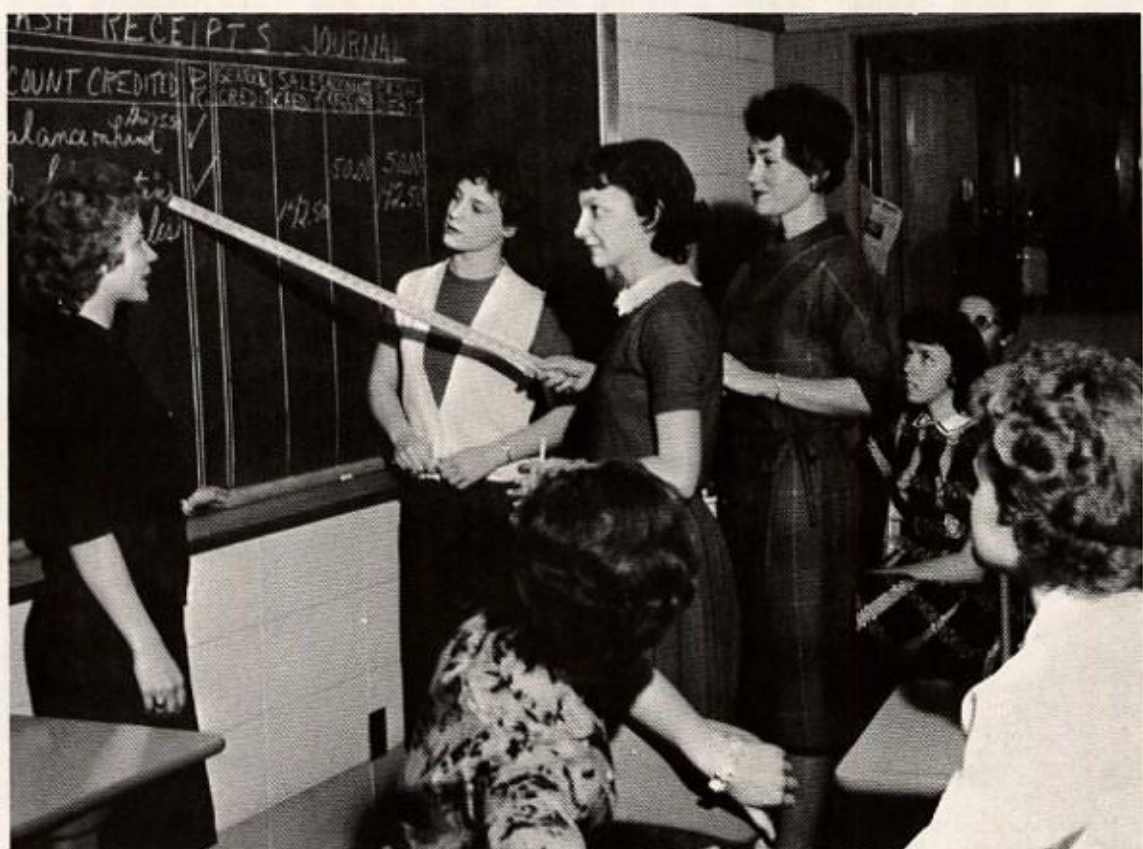

To the girls at least, the commercial department is probably the most popular, because those students who plan to seek job opportunities after graduation find the best opportunities in the business field. Our commercial department is one of the largest and best equipped in the school. The three adjoining rooms furnish the students with typewriters, dictaphones, the Gestetner, ditto machine, and adding machine which they would ordinarily find in an office. The office practice class gives the students a chance to do the sort of work that would be required of them in an office.

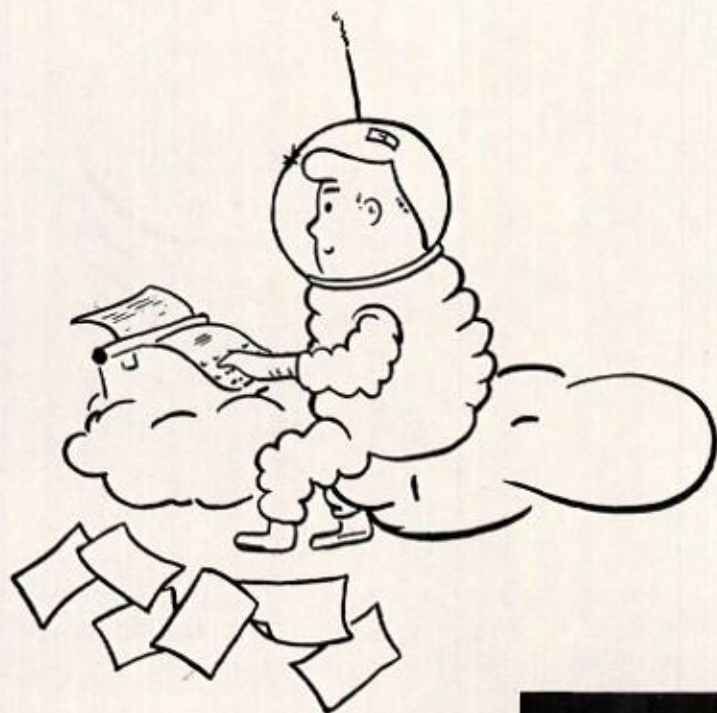

ABOVE--Office practice girls busily working on school newspaper.

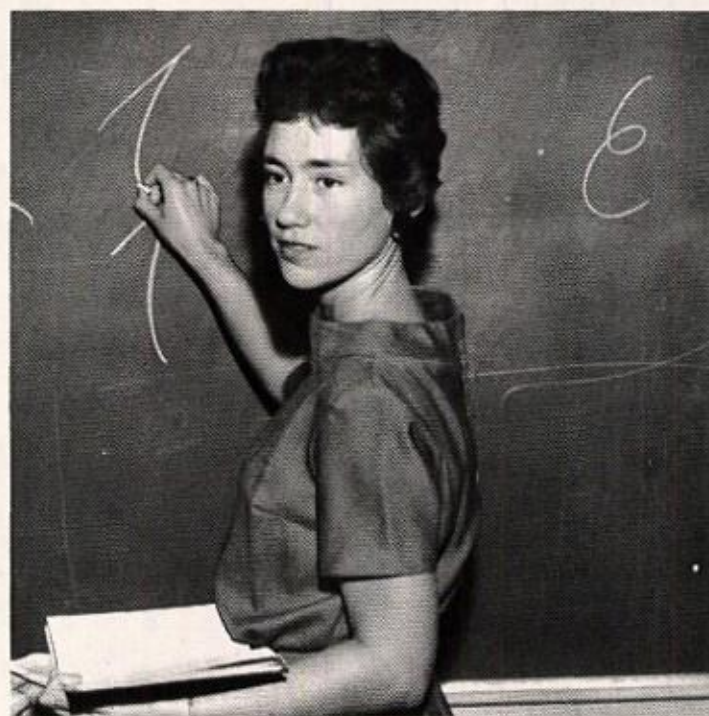

RIGHT--Miss Nease pointing out the fundamentals of book-keeping.

DEPARTMENT

RIGHT--Miss Nease advises students on their shorthand outlines.

The advisor of shorthand I, office practice, general business, and bookkeeping is: Miss Nease.

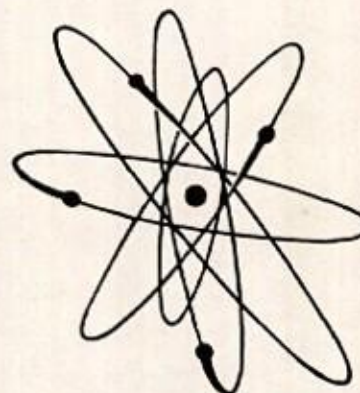

Typing I under the guidance of Miss Ferritto.

SCIENCE AND

Advisors in these departments are:

Mrs. Walker
Mr. Saunders
Mr. Ferringer
Mr. Warner
Mr. Allen
Mr. Robeson

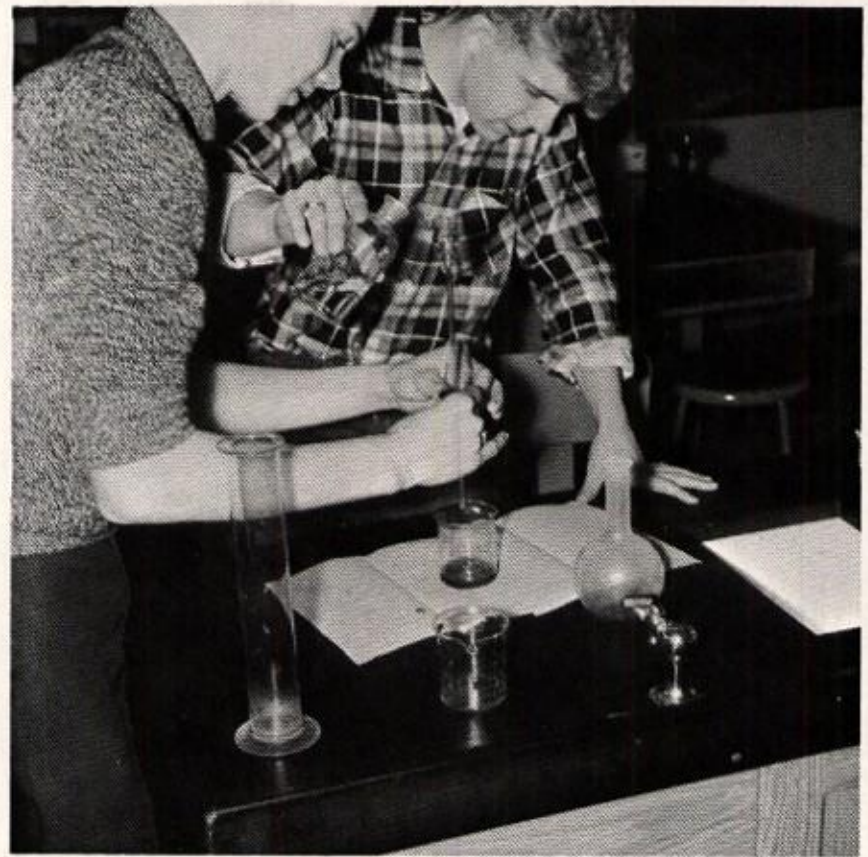

Science, with its numerous complex problems, bases its findings on common sense. By using common sense, scientists have set down laws and principles by which we explore our universe. Working out solutions gives the scientist a sense of accomplishment.

Because of the advance of Russia in space travel, there is a growing demand for scientists and mathematicians. Opportunities in this field are unlimited. Our government, factories, industries, and engineers need men and women trained for scientific work.

Although most of the scientific courses are elective in the senior high, students are urged to take them.

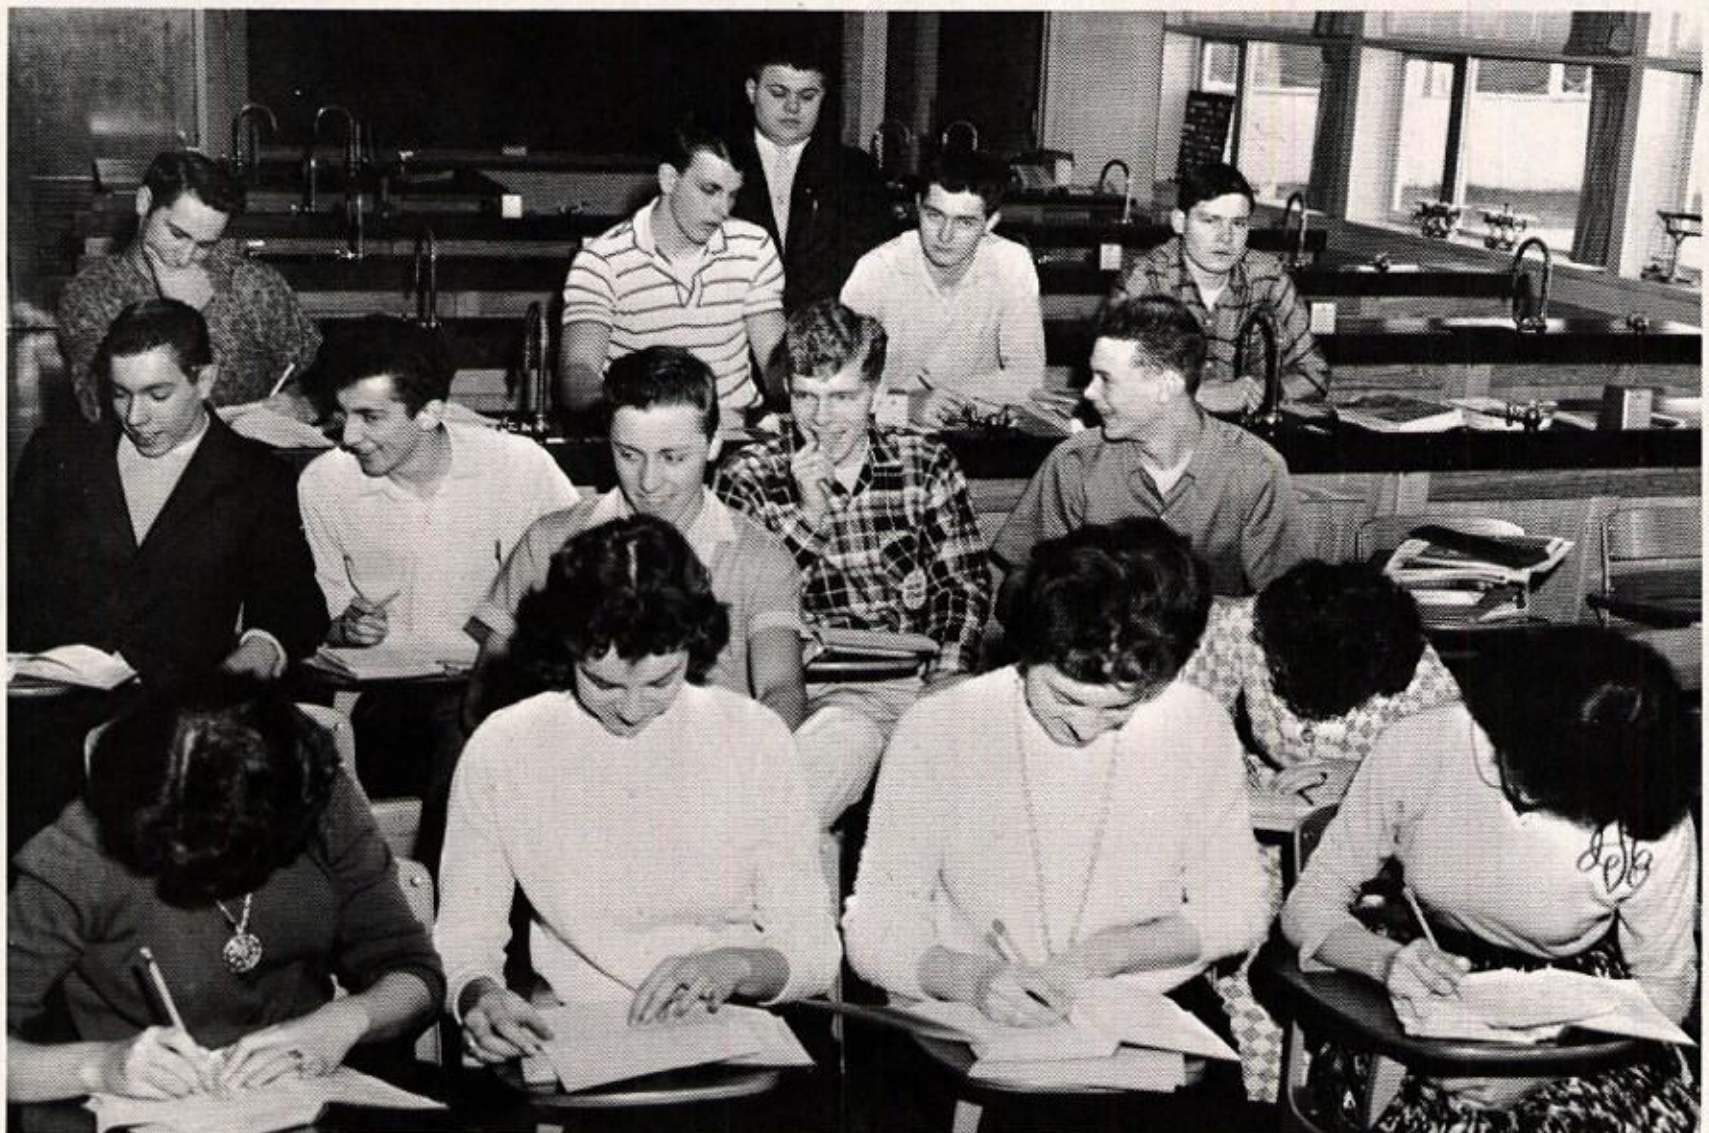

MATHEMATICS

John and Roger make this look more like fun rather than a tough assignment.

WORKING HARD?

ENGLISH

The advisors for the English department are as follows:

Mr. Hewitt
Mr. Walsh
Mr. Charles
Mr. McDermott
Miss Ring

English is definitely considered among the more important courses, for it is a major requirement every year. English is mainly the study of grammar and literature. Our study of literature includes everything from poetry to Shakespeare's plays of Julius Caesar, Hamlet, and MacBeth. We couldn't begin to name the many uses of English grammar. Without it we could have little conversation and certainly no writing. There would be no history and little future without our language.

DEPARTMENT

Mr. McDermott showing some interesting books to read in English class.

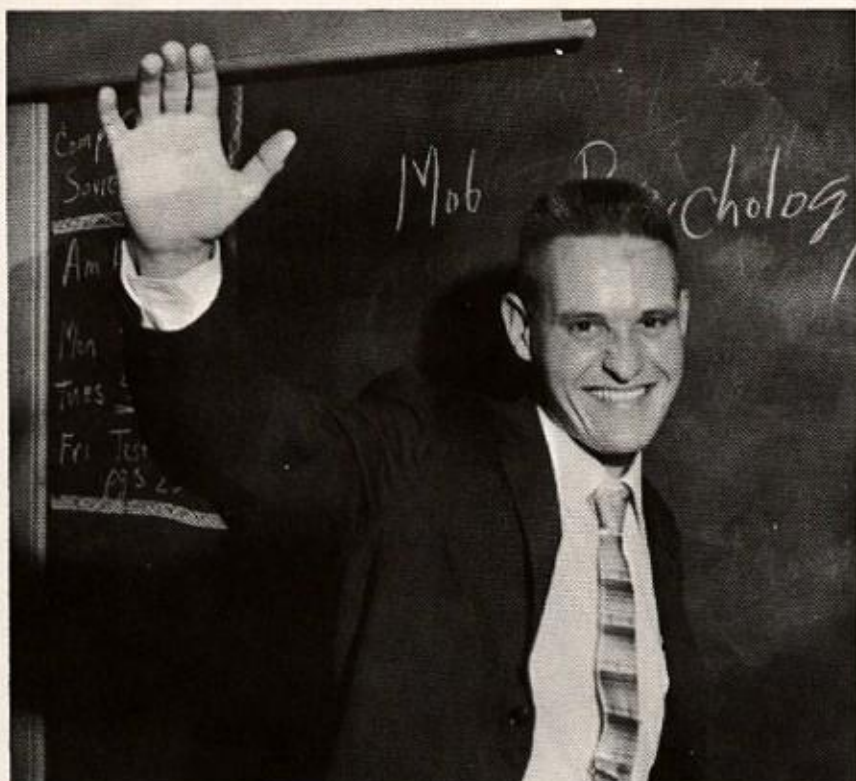

Mr. Charles giving a helping hand.

Mr. Walsh showing the students how to diagram sentences.

SOCIAL

Mr. Simpson's greatest desire, "peace."

The advisors for this department are as follows:

Miss Davis
Mr. Simpson
Mr. Charles
Mr. Walsh
Mr. Haney

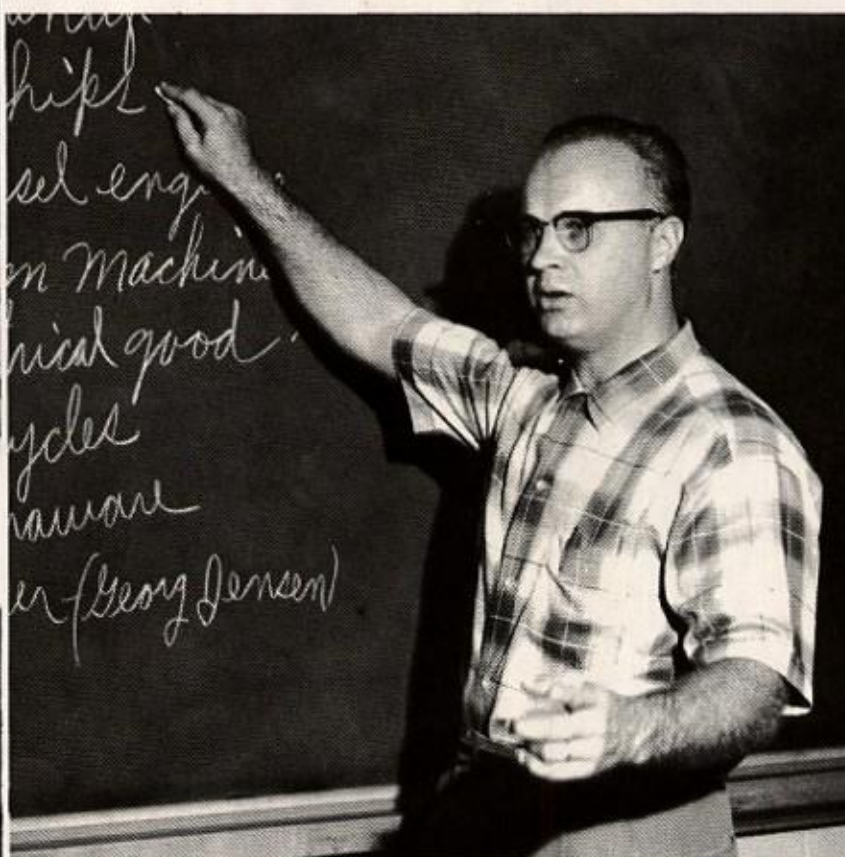

History is the record of man's past. In a sense this is not completely true, for history is being made every day. Because we must know of man's past in order to understand the world today, World and American History is taught. When we know the background of our country, we can better understand the Problems of Democracy.

Miss Davis explains a hard question in Civics.

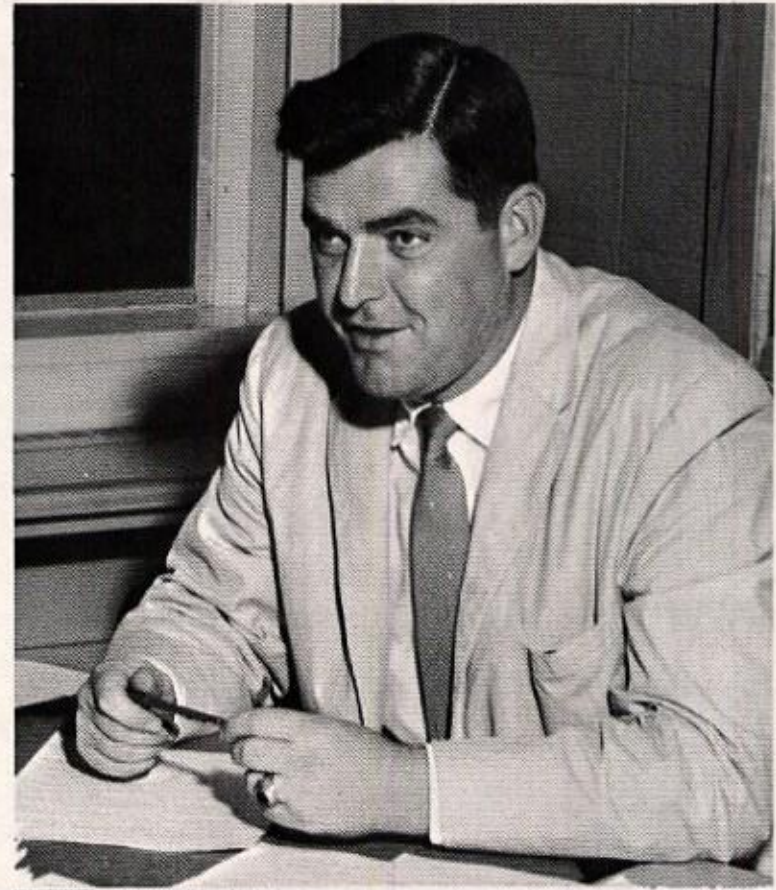

*Perserese
don't procrastinate and don't allow these to distract from those important things
of life.*
Henry Dedono

Under the direction of Mr. Haney, the Junior High students learn many facts about our history.

STUDIES DEPARTMENT

Mrs. Konnerth does a wonderful job in teaching the Junior Vocational Class.

GYMNASTICS CLASS

The advisors of this department are as follows:
Mrs. Axtell, Mr. Diffenbacher.

Gym class is one of the more enjoyable requirements. Physical education cultivates good sportsmanship and provides all around practical exercise for the students. Equipment such as the trampoline, the horse, and bars develop good co-ordination and control. Basketball, volleyball, and socker-ball are played to add variety.

The gym show is one of the highlights of the school year.

LIBRARY

The advisor for the library is: Mrs. Church

No school is complete without a library. The library is sometimes called the memory of the human race for it holds all the secrets of the ages. If you're in doubt, Mrs. Church is always willing to help out. (seniors especially appreciate her help when writing their term papers.)

The Library Club helps students to learn more about their library, and at the same time be of service in the library.

MUSIC

The music Dept., a very important part of the school, makes school life colorful and adds to the excitement of all activities.

Within the music department are two important organizations, the band and chorus. Both are becoming larger and more important each year.

This fall, our band, led by the twirlers, was seen marching on the football field. They also performed during basketball games and for a number of assemblies, as did the chorus.

The spring concert is the most gala event of the season, in which the chorus participates.

Mr. Perkins at the piano.

Members of chorus accompanied by Norma Gross at the piano.

LANGUAGES

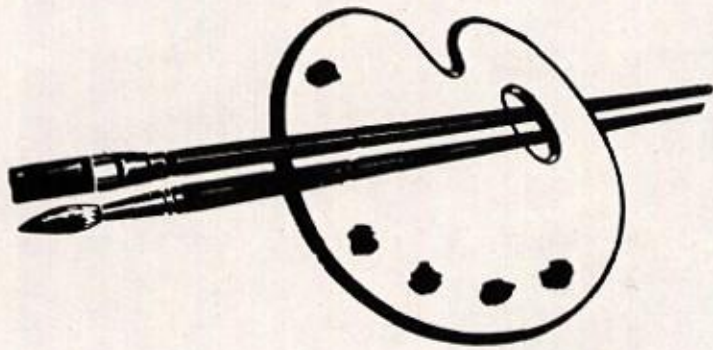

The advisors for the language departments are: Mr. Picard, Miss Davis.

Language is the basis of all knowledge and human relationships. Along with our study of the English language, we are offered courses in Latin and French. Although Latin is considered a dead language, it has important educational values. Many English words are derived from Latin and a student gains a background in grammar and vocabulary which will help him in studying English, French, and other widely spoken languages.

AND ART

The advisor for the Art department is: Mrs. Lopez.

The study of art not only develops artistic skill in drawing, painting, sculpture, etc., but also teaches art appreciation and the use of art to express ideas.

All students are required to study art in seventh, eighth, and ninth grades. In the senior high, art can be taken as an elective.

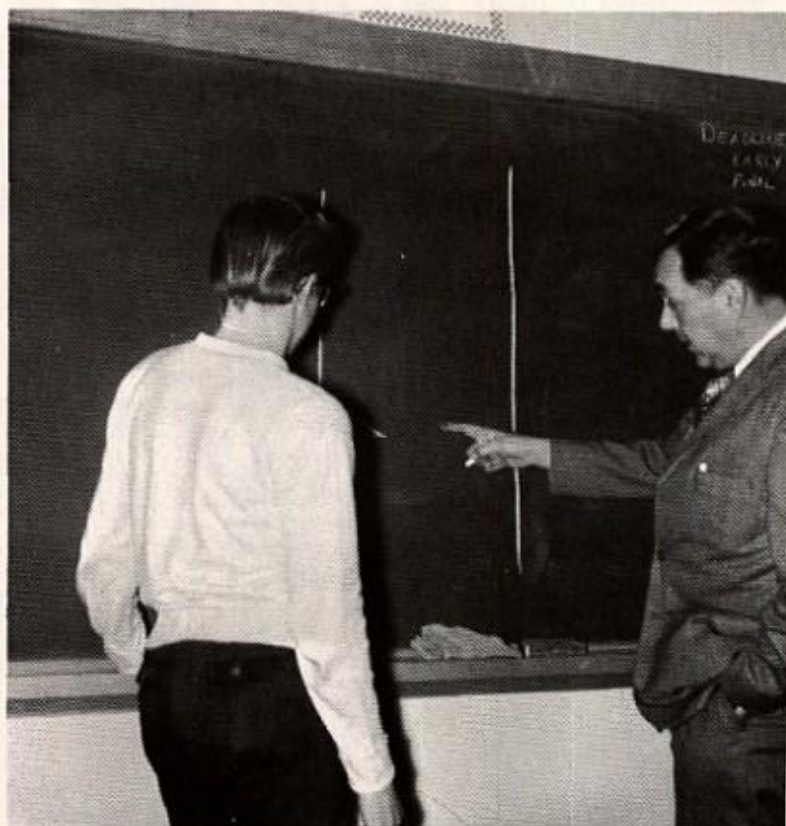

F. F. A.

The advisors for this department are as follows:

Mr. Hartshorn.

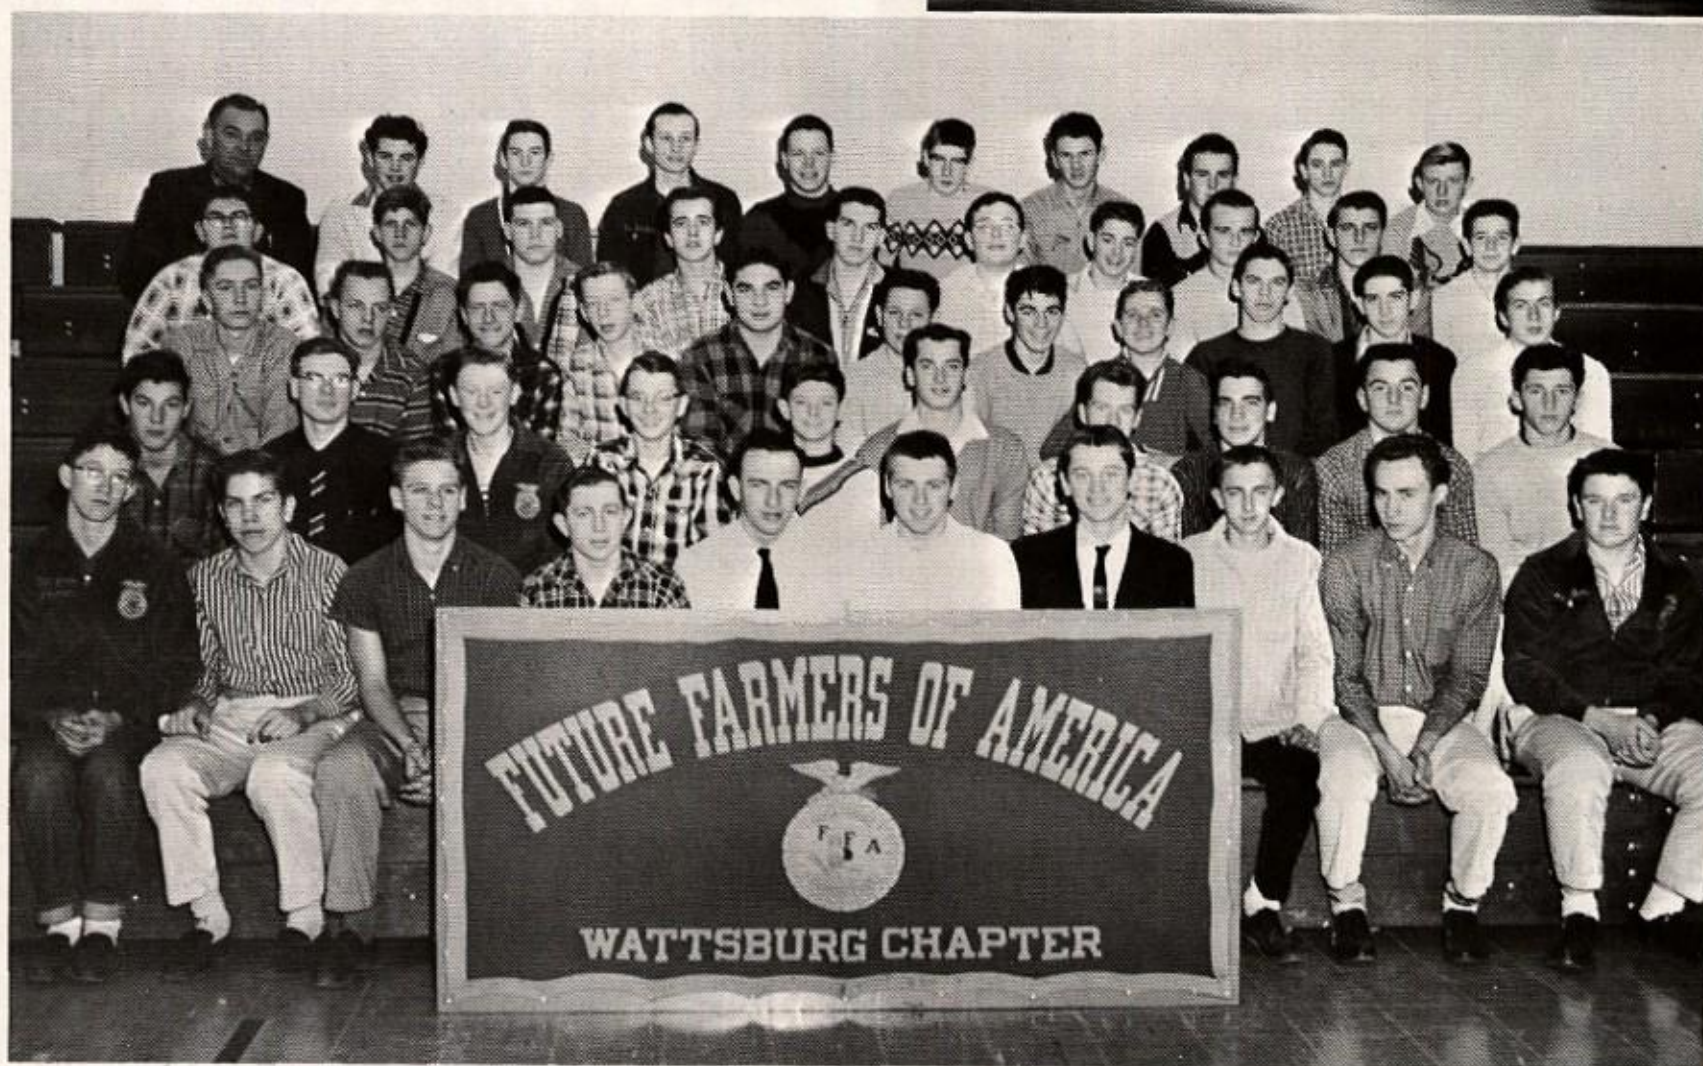

Mr. Troyer

At right: Norma Gross, F.F.A. Sweetheart.

Members of the F.F.A.

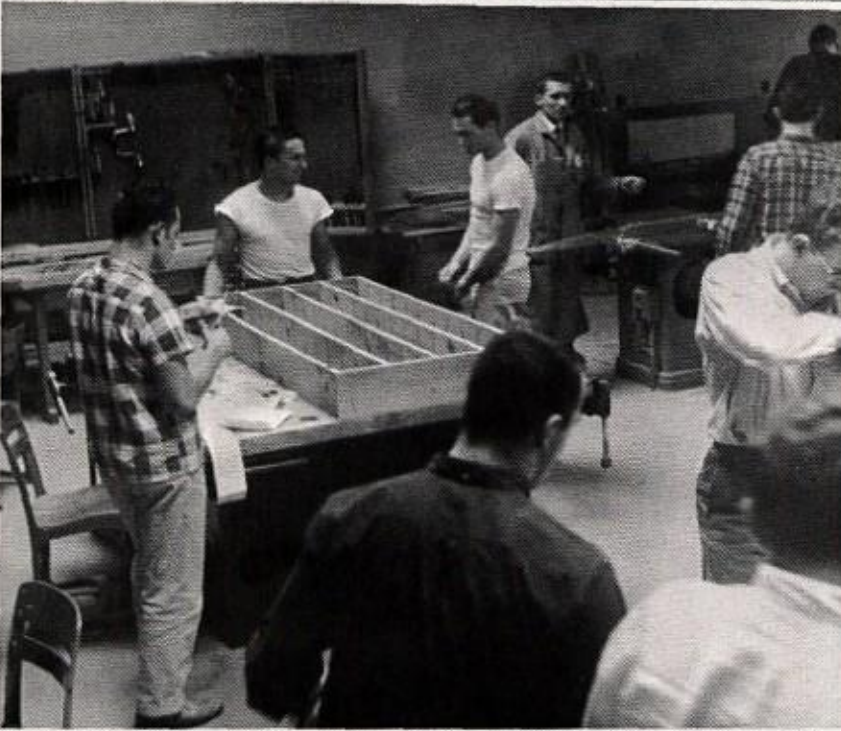

INDUSTRIAL ARTS

The advisor of this department is:
Mr. Young

Under the direction of Mr. Young, the boys turn out some very beautiful projects. This experience is very helpful to the students in the future.

SENIOR HOME-EC.

The advisor of the Senior High home economics
is: Mrs. Boleratz

It has been said that the home is the backbone of the nation. Making a happy home is the wish of every girl. Here the girls learn to cook, sew, practice etiquette, child care, the fundamentals of good diet, food value and preparation. All of these are important in making a happy home. With the expert guidance of Mrs. Boleratz, the girls become efficient and wise economists. The F.H.A. is an organization that develops the knowledge of the students in the field of home economics.

The advisor of the Junior High home economics is: Mrs. Wagner

Under the guidance of Mrs. Wagner, the girls start their education early in home economics. They also have an opportunity to join the Junior F.H.A. which serves the same purpose as the Senior F.H.A.

OUR JOANN

JoAnn Williams, a sweet senior, brought fame and fortune to Wattsburg when her delicious cherry pies were not only voted best in our school, county, and state, but of all fifty states.

As National Champion, JoAnn toured with Mrs. Boleratz, our fine Home Economics advisor, to New York City where JoAnn appeared on the Dave Garroway Show and then to Washington where JoAnn presented President Eisenhower and Mrs. Eisenhower with one of her pies.

On returning to Erie, met at the airport by the cheering Senior class and with victory music from the band, JoAnn cried with joy.

We are all very proud of "OUR JOANN." JoAnn, "congratulations again."

NATIONAL CHAMP

DRIVERS TRAINING

Going on a vacation?

All ready to go!

Learning to drive may not be considered the most important course by the school office, but to an impatient sophomore waiting for his sixteenth birthday, it's very important. One must learn to respect the rights of others and to become a careful and courteous driver. Not only learning how to drive, but how not to drive carelessly is important.

And that's the battery.

NURSES' OFFICE

Boy, is he growing!

How are you set for aches and pains? If this seems to be your problem, Mrs. Bisbee is the one to see. As our school nurse, she has her hands full of everything from sprained ankles to a severe headache, when you have a test to take. She is efficient and well liked by all the students.

Pretty bad, huh?

STUDENT COUNCIL

Members of the Student Council

Pres. Jerry Bliley confers with advisor, Mr. Brannon.

THE COUNCIL'S CHOICE IS THE STUDENT'S VOICE

The Student Council is the governing body of the Wattsburg students. Its main goal is to bring about a better understanding between the faculty and students.

This year, under the careful guidance of Mr. Brannon, the council planned many successful events, with the hope that we would be able to bring a foreign exchange student to our school. This would be a decided achievement to add to the long list of their accomplishments.

Seniors

Youth is an island bright in the sun across the sea, but there is no returning:
the convoy moves relentlessly into the west and over the wake the seagulls crying.
Better a hope lost than a life of lying;
of all man's wisdom, truth is best.

Small consolation, but the broken water glistens against the green stillness and the clouds are buoyant in the blue.
Thus the vision, this the craving,
and in the no-man's sea between,
no flashing light, no harbour promised,
no course foretold but as the wind speaks to the calling birds.

The island recedes, the familiar beauty fades,
brilliant as June once and maiden-fresh,
captive no more the hundred graces led in delight along the dappled lanes, with youth exalted in the morning sun.
All this is gone now, and with its daring,
the certain truth, the known shape of language
bright on the lips of men.

Farewell, then.
Time to turn from the dwindling vision,
the grey ghost of failure, the dusk of youth, knowing that words are laggard movers out of their time and place, resistant always to a new meaning. The old hunger stays to meet the new craving: all else is gone.
It is time to move.

DANCE CLUBS

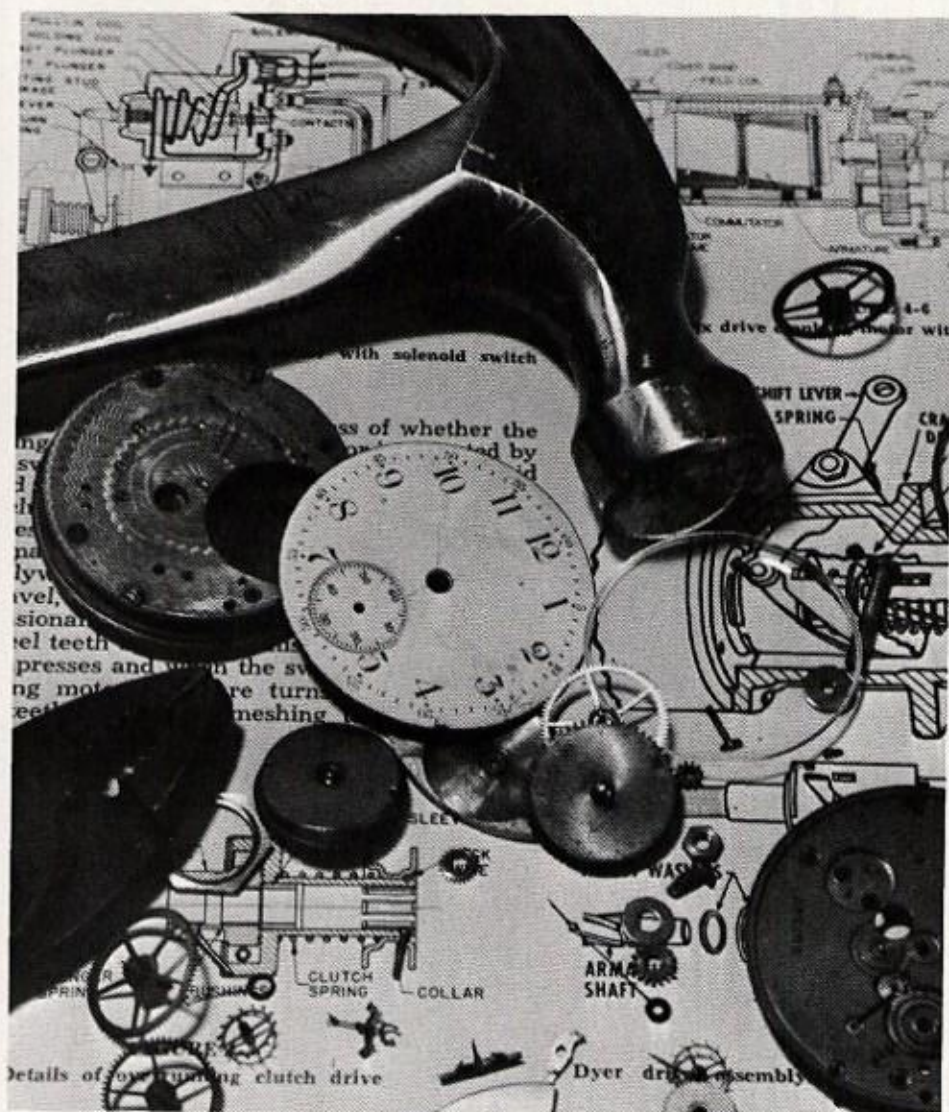

Officers are as follows: President John Riddle
Sec.-Treasurer Al Bennett

The Jr.-Sr. Dance Clubs promote self-confidence and act as a diversion from the routine of the school week. Due to the co-operation of the members and the instructions of their advisor, Mr. Perkins, many students learn new and exciting dance steps.

YEARBOOK STAFF

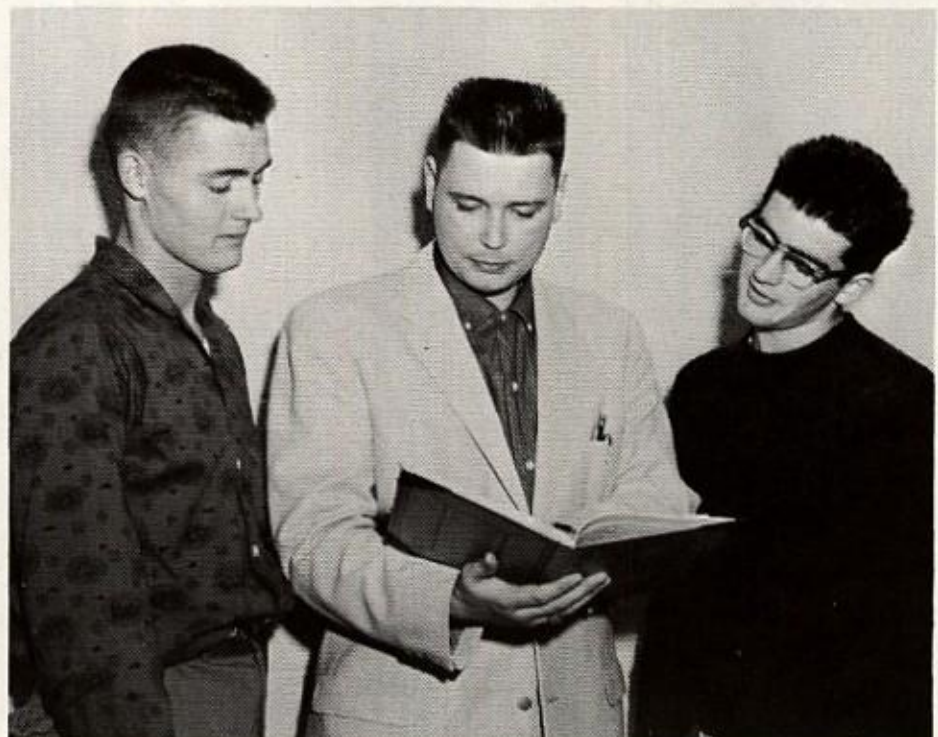

FIRST ROW, left to right: C. Rose, L. Theuret, L. Haynes, J. Johnson, R. Tanner. SECOND ROW: Mr. Charles, D. Yosten, R. Edwards, D. Thornton, Mr. Picard.

BUSINESS STAFF

Left to right: Asst. Bus. Mgr. R. Edwards, Bus. Advisor, Mr. Charles, Bus. Mgr. D. Orton.

This year the yearbook staff was fortunate in having Larry as editor; only through his help coupled with advice from our advisor, Mr. Picard, was it possible to publish our book.

Dan Orton, as manager of the Business Staff was instrumental in providing enough funds and with the help of his assistant Ronnie Edwards, they were able to please their advisor, Mr. Charles, with their truly efficient work.

Athletics

FOOTBALL

Wattsburg's football squad for 1959. Although, they lacked experience at the start, these boys made a real showing.

Wattsburg Area High School again has a football team under Coaches Robeson, Diffenbacher, and Young. The team has attempted to gain the experience necessary for a good varsity team next year by playing a J. V. schedule this year.

J. V. CHEERLEADERS

Carol Rose

Cap. Audrey Karotka

Judy Lohse

Carol Robasky

The job of the cheerleaders is to increase school spirit and enthusiasm among the students of this school.

The varsity cheerleaders are doing that and more for they are truly representing the school in a very favorable way at all times.

EVERYONE IS CONFUSED!

DRAMATICS CLUB

The purpose of the Dramatics Club is to acquaint students with acting and stage procedure. They made their exciting debut with their performance of "The Bar H Ranch Finds Christmas." Many students find self-confidence and learn to speak more freely in front of an audience. Their director, Mr. Hewitt, says they will never forget the things they will learn in Dramatics Club.
